PENANG, PEARL OF THE ORIENT
A WORLD WINNER IN MANY WAYS.

In 1786 when Captain Francis Light landed in Penang, it heralded the growth of this strategically located island into a major trading port between the East and West. Penang also became famous for its spice trade of pepper, nutmegs and cloves. After the country's independence, there was no looking back. Its shipping commerce and urban development drew talents from the world over to make Penang a unique melting pot of cultural diversity.

Today, Penang is an energetic centre of attraction not only for trade, property and investments but an international magnet for tourism, culture, crafts, history, food, sandy beaches and endless shopping.
